

50 Essential Travel Tips from Local Greater Than Tourist Europe

Planning Your Itinerary

1. Do your research. Before you book your trip, take some time to research different destinations and decide what you want to see and do. There are many great resources available online, such as travel blogs, guidebooks, and social media.
2. Be flexible. Things don't always go according to plan when you're traveling, so it's important to be flexible with your itinerary. If you're open to changing your plans, you'll be more likely to have a positive experience.
3. Allow for some downtime. It's important to build in some downtime into your itinerary so that you can relax and enjoy your trip. Don't try to cram too much into your schedule, or you'll end up feeling stressed and exhausted.
4. Consider your budget. Travel can be expensive, so it's important to set a budget before you go. This will help you make informed decisions about where to stay, what to eat, and what activities to do.

Packing the Right Clothes

1. Pack light. You don't want to be weighed down by luggage, so pack only the essentials. Choose versatile items that can be mixed and matched to create different outfits.
2. Roll your clothes. Rolling your clothes instead of folding them will save space in your suitcase. It will also help to prevent wrinkles.

3. Wear your heaviest shoes. This will save space in your suitcase and help to distribute the weight more evenly.
4. Bring a reusable water bottle. This will help you to stay hydrated and save money on bottled water.

Navigating Transportation

1. Buy a travel pass. If you're planning on doing a lot of traveling by train, bus, or subway, a travel pass can be a great way to save money.
2. Take advantage of public transportation. Public transportation is often the most affordable and efficient way to get around.
3. Be aware of your surroundings. When you're using public transportation, be aware of your surroundings and your personal belongings.
4. Learn a few basic phrases in the local language. This will help you to communicate with locals and get around more easily.

Dining

1. Try local cuisine. One of the best ways to experience a new culture is through its food. Be adventurous and try some of the local dishes.
2. Eat at local restaurants. Tourist traps are often overpriced and underwhelming. Instead, eat at local restaurants where you'll get a more authentic experience.
3. Be prepared to pay for bread and water. In some countries, it's customary to pay for bread and water at restaurants.
4. Leave a tip. Tipping is customary in many countries, so be sure to leave a tip for good service.

Sightseeing

1. Do your research. Before you visit a new city, take some time to research the different attractions and decide what you want to see. This will help you to make the most of your time.
2. Book your tickets in advance. If you're planning on visiting popular attractions, it's a good idea to book your tickets in advance. This will help you to avoid long lines and disappointment.
3. Get off the beaten path. Don't just stick to the tourist traps. Get off the beaten path and explore some of the hidden gems that the city has to offer.
4. Be respectful of local customs. When you're visiting a new place, it's important to be respectful of local customs. Dress appropriately, be mindful of your behavior, and avoid making loud noises.

Hidden Gems

1. Ask locals for recommendations. Locals are a great source of information about hidden gems in their city. Ask them for recommendations for restaurants, bars, attractions, and more.
2. Do some research online. There are many great resources available online that can help you to find hidden gems in your destination.
3. Get lost. Sometimes the best way to find hidden gems is to simply get lost. Wander around the city and see what you find.
4. Be open to new experiences. Don't be afraid to try new things. You might just be surprised by what you find.

These are just a few of the many tips that can help you to make the most of your trip to Europe. By following these tips, you can avoid common pitfalls and have a more enjoyable and
