

The Dog Who Crossed the Jungle to Find Home

In the heart of a sprawling jungle, a young boy named Pako and his beloved dog, Rupi, embark on an extraordinary journey that will forever change their lives. When Pako's village is ravaged by a ruthless band of raiders, he finds himself separated from Rupi and lost deep within the unforgiving wilderness.

As night falls, Pako huddles beneath a thicket, his heart aching for the companion he has lost. Meanwhile, Rupi, driven by an unyielding instinct to reunite with his human, sets out alone into the treacherous jungle. Guided by a keen sense of smell and unwavering determination, Rupi traverses treacherous ravines, battles towering predators, and encounters both danger and kindness along the way.

In a parallel narrative, we follow Pako's desperate search for Rupi. With each passing day, his hope dwindles as he struggles to survive the unforgiving jungle. Yet, despite the odds, Pako refuses to give up on finding his loyal companion.

As the journey progresses, Pako and Rupi face countless obstacles and challenges. They encounter treacherous swamps, navigate dense thickets, and confront their deepest fears. Yet, through it all, the unbreakable bond between them remains as strong as ever.

As days turn into weeks, Pako and Rupi finally cross paths amidst a clearing in the heart of the jungle. A moment of pure joy and relief washes over them as they embrace, their bond renewed and stronger than ever before. Together, they face the perils of the remaining journey, determined to return home to the safety and love they once shared.

i don't know what living a balanced life feels like when i am sad
i don't cry, i pour
when i am happy
i don't smile, i beam
when i am angry
i don't yell, i burn
the good thing about
feeling in extremes
is when i love
i give them wings
but perhaps that isn't
such a good thing
cause they always
tend to leave and
you should see me
when my heart is broken
i don't grieve
i shatter
