As the operation unfolded, Donnelly found himself in a dangerous game, walking a tightrope between his loyalty to the FBI and his former criminal associates. The risks were enormous, but Donnelly's determination to make amends for his past crimes kept him going.

The Heist of a Lifetime: Robbing the Robbers

The culmination of Operation Green River came in 1991, when Donnelly and the FBI pulled off a daring heist of their own. In a meticulously planned operation, they robbed the criminals they had been investigating, seizing millions of dollars in cash and stolen goods.
