When Jack and Annie discover a mysterious tree house, they never imagine it will take them on such an exciting journey. But when they climb inside, they're whisked away to the shores of Norway in the year 1000. There, they meet Viking children Erik and Helga, who show them around their village and teach them about Viking life.

But Jack and Annie soon discover that the Vikings are in danger. A fierce dragon is terrorizing the village, and the Vikings need their help to defeat it. Jack and Annie must use all their courage and ingenuity to save their new friends and escape the clutches of the dragon.

Viking Ships at Sunrise is a thrilling adventure story that will captivate readers of all ages. Mary Pope Osborne's writing is vivid and engaging, and her characters are unforgettable. This book is a must-read for any fan of the Magic Tree House series.
